What this guide is about

It's good to know where to turn if you ever need help or support. And it's important that the advice you receive is reliable and up to date.

This handy directory brings together the details of trusted organisations that can help you – either now or in the future.

We provide contact details for organisations across England, Wales and Northern Ireland.

How Age UK can help

Age UK is the leading charity for people in later life. Our network includes Age Cymru, Age NI, Age Scotland, Age International and around 120 local Age UKs. We provide information and advice in publications like this one, on our website, and over the phone via the Age UK Advice Line.

We publish information guides and more detailed factsheets on a variety of topics – including social care, housing, benefits, legal affairs and health. Find these resources on our website at www.ageuk.org.uk/publications or call the Age UK Advice Line free on 0800 169 65 65 to order printed copies. Lines are open 8am–7pm, 365 days a year.

Age Cymru, Age NI and Age Scotland publish their own versions of some guides and factsheets. Contact them to request copies or visit their websites to read them online (see page 7).

Next steps

It's a good idea to find out the number for your local council. They'll be able to provide a lot of the support and information mentioned in this guide.

My local council phone number is:

Local support

Help us be there for someone else

We hope you found this guide helpful. When times are tough, it's so important to get some support. Did you know you could help us reach someone else who needs a little help? Here's how:

1

Give your views on guides like this

Our Readers' Panel helps make sure the information we produce is right for older people and their families. We'd love you to join. Go to www.ageuk.org.uk/readers-panel.

2

Donate to us

Every donation we receive helps us be there for someone when they need us. To make a donation, call us on 0800 169 8787 or go to www.ageuk.org.uk/donate.

3

Volunteer with us

Our volunteers make an incredible difference to people's lives. Get involved by contacting your local Age UK or at www.ageuk.org.uk/volunteer.

4

Campaign with us

We campaign to make life better for older people, and rely on the help of our strong network of campaigners. Add your voice to our latest campaigns at www.ageuk.org.uk/campaigns.

5

Remember us in your will

A gift to Age UK in your will is a very special way of helping older people get expert support in the years to come. Find out more by calling 020 3033 1421 or visit www.ageuk.org.uk/legacy.

What should I do now?

You can order any of our guides or factsheets by giving our Advice Line a ring for free on 0800 169 65 65 (8am-7pm, 365 days a year).

Our friendly advisers are there to help answer any questions.

All of our publications are available in large print and audio formats.

There's plenty of really useful information on our website, too. Visit www.ageuk.org.uk to get started.
